SECTION I	INTRODUCTION
SECTION II	OVERVIEW OF PART II.1 OF THE CRIMINAL CODE
SECTION III	STATISTICS
SECTION IV	ASSESSMENT

SECTION I - INTRODUCTION

The Attorney General of Nova Scotia is required under Section 83.31 of the Criminal Code of Canada to prepare and publish an annual report on the operation of Sections 83.28 and 83.29, which provide for investigative hearings into terrorism offences. This report is to contain data on items listed in paragraphs 83.31(1)(a) to (c), namely:

- The number of consents to make an application that was sought, and the number that were obtained by virtue of Subsections 83.28(2) and (3);
- The number of orders for the gathering of information that were made under Subsection 83.28(4);
- The number of arrests that were made with a warrant issued under Section 83.29.

Similarly, the Attorney General of Nova Scotia must provide a report to Parliament on the operation of Section 83.3, which establishes a procedure for obtaining a recognizance order as a means of preventing the carrying out of a terrorist activity. This report must include the following data:

- The number of consents that were sought and the number obtained;
- The number of cases in which a summons or a warrant of arrest was issued;
- The number of cases where a person was not released pending a hearing;
- The number of cases in which an order to enter into a recognizance was made, and the types of conditions imposed;
- The number of times a person failed or refused to enter into a recognizance, and the term of imprisonment imposed;
- The number of cases in which the conditions fixed in a recognizance were varied.

The Attorney General of Nova Scotia is also required under Subsection 83.31(3) of the Criminal Code to prepare and publish an annual report pertaining to the use of arrest without warrant. Pursuant to Subsection 83.3(4) of the Criminal Code, a peace officer who suspects on reasonable grounds that the detention of a person is necessary to prevent a terrorist activity, may arrest the person without a warrant. The annual report must include:

- The number of arrests without warrant and the period of detention.
- The number of cases in which the person arrested was released by a peace officer.
- The number of cases in which the person arrested was released by a judge.

This document constitutes the annual report of the Attorney General of Nova Scotia for the period from December 24, 2005 through December 23, 2006.

SECTION II - OVERVIEW OF PART II.1 OF THE CRIMINAL CODE OF CANADA

A key focus of the Anti-terrorism Act is to prevent terrorist incidents by providing the necessary tools to police, prosecutors and the Courts. The investigative hearing provisions in Section 83.28 and 83.29 allow a police officer, "for purposes of an investigation of a terrorism offence," to apply ex parte to a judge for an order to gather information relevant to that investigation. This procedure has parallels in Canadian mutual legal assistance legislation. It authorizes the judge to order the examination of a material witness who may possess information regarding a terrorist offence that has been or may be committed. These witnesses are protected by Subsection 83.28(10) from their statements being used in any criminal proceedings against them. Other safeguards of the individual's rights are built into the procedure.

Section 83.3 of the Criminal Code establishes an additional preventive measure against terrorism. To make use of this provision, a peace officer must believe on reasonable grounds that a terrorist activity will be carried out and suspect on reasonable grounds that imposing conditions for supervision or arresting a person is necessary to prevent this activity from being carried out. If these conditions are met, the peace officer can bring the person before a court, with a summons or alternatively by arrest with or without a warrant, so that a judge may determine whether or not to order a recognizance to keep the peace. The recognizance, which requires the person to adhere to certain imposed conditions, can be for a maximum period of twelve months.

Investigative Hearings

The following are the key features of the procedure found in Sections 83.28 and 83.29:

- The investigative hearing may be held where a judge is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a terrorism offence has been or will be committed;
- The consent of the Attorney General is required to initiate the process and the hearing must be held before a judge;
- Charges need not be laid against any suspects at the time that the investigative hearing is held;
- The order may include a requirement that a person attend to be examined under oath and produce records of items or activities in question;
- The witness is provided with legal safeguards, including one against the disclosure of information protected by Canadian laws related to privilege or non disclosure of information. Other safeguards include protections against self-incrimination in relation to other criminal proceedings and the right to retain and instruct counsel;
- A power of arrest is provided in respect of a person who is evading the order or is about to abscond.

Recognizances with Conditions

The following are the key features of the procedure found in Section 83.3:

- The police, upon receiving the consent of the Attorney General, may lay an information and have a Court place restrictions upon a person. It must be believed, based on reasonable grounds, that a terrorist activity will be committed, and suspected, based on reasonable grounds, that imposing conditions for supervision or arresting a person is required to prevent a terrorist act;
- In exigent circumstances, where it was suspected on reasonable grounds that an arrest is necessary to prevent the commission of the terrorist activity, a peace officer may arrest a person without a warrant and bring the person before a judge;
- The person must be brought before a judge as soon as possible, and in any event within 24 hours if a judge is available;
- The judge may order the continued detention of the person pending a hearing, but that detention must not exceed 48 hours;

- The onus is on the peace officer to demonstrate why the person should have conditions imposed upon him as part of his release.

Arrests Without Warrant

The following are the key features of the arrest without warrant regime found in Section 83.3 (4):

- A peace officer must believe on reasonable grounds that a terrorist activity will be carried out and must suspect on reasonable grounds an arrest is necessary to prevent the carrying out of a terrorist activity;
- Exigent circumstances make it impracticable to obtain the consent of the Attorney General and to lay an information before a provincial Court judge;
- A peace officer suspects on reasonable grounds that the detention of a person in custody is necessary to prevent a terrorist activity;
- When the above conditions are met, the person may be arrested without warrant.

The following are the key features of the procedural regime for an arrest without warrant:

- The arresting officer is required to lay an information with the consent of the Attorney General of Canada before a provincial Court judge with respect to the reasonable grounds for the arrest;
- A person arrested without warrant can be released before being taken before a provincial Court judge by the arresting officer or officer in charge;
- A person arrested without warrant and detained in custody shall be taken before a provincial Court judge, if the judge is available, within 24 hours. If a provincial Court judge is not available within 24 hours after the person has been arrested, the person shall be taken before a provincial Court judge as soon as possible;
- Once before the provincial Court judge, an order can be made by the judge to release the person if an information has not been laid. Where an information has been laid, the judge can order the person released unless the peace officer can show cause why the detention is necessary. The judge can also adjourn the matter to a hearing that must occur within 48 hours.

Other Features

Section 83.31 requires the Attorney General of Nova Scotia to present an annual report to Parliament on the operation of these powers (investigative hearings, recognizances with conditions, and arrests without warrant), as set out in the Introduction.

Subsection 83.31(4) requires that these annual reports shall not contain any information the disclosure of which would compromise or hinder an ongoing investigation of an offence under an Act of Parliament. The reports must also not release information that would endanger the life or safety of any person, prejudice a legal proceeding or otherwise be contrary to the public interest.

Section 83.32 contains a "sunset" clause whereby these powers shall cease to apply (i.e., will no longer be in force) as of the end of the fifteenth sitting day of Parliament after December 31, 2006, unless the application of the relevant Sections is extended pursuant to the procedure set out in Subsections 83.32(2) to (5).

SECTION III - STATISTICS

Report on the operation of Sections 83.28 and 83.29 (Investigative Hearings)

From December 24, 2005 through December 23, 2006, the Provincial Police Service (Royal Canadian Mounted Police), municipal police agencies, and the Public Prosecution Service of Nova Scotia report that there were no applications initiated under these Sections of the Criminal Code. As such, there is no data to report in relation to the reporting requirements in paragraphs 83.31(1) (a) to (c), concerning the investigative hearing provisions.

Report on the operation of Section 83.3 (Recognizances with Conditions)

From December 24, 2005 through December 23, 2006, the Provincial Police Service (Royal Canadian Mounted Police), municipal police agencies, and the Public Prosecution Service of Nova Scotia report that there were no cases initiated under this Section of the Criminal Code. As such, there is no data to report in relation to the reporting requirements in paragraphs 83.31(2)(a) to (f), concerning the recognizance provisions.

Report on the operation of Section 83.3 (4) (Arrests without Warrant)

From December 24, 2005 through December 23, 2006, the Provincial Police Service (Royal Canadian Mounted Police), municipal police agencies, and the Public Prosecution Service of Nova Scotia report that there were no arrests without warrant pursuant to Subsection 83.3(4) of the Criminal Code. As such, there is no data to report in relation to the period of the arrested person's detention. Since no arrests without warrant were made under Subsection 83.3(4), there is also no data to report as per paragraph 83.31(3)(b). This has been confirmed by the Provincial Police Service (Royal Canadian Mounted Police), municipal police agencies, and the Public Prosecution Service of Nova Scotia.

SECTION IV - ASSESSMENT

The special provisions in the Anti-terrorism Act for investigative hearings, recognizance orders, and arrests without warrant are intended to provide tools to police, prosecutors and the Courts in support of the identification of terrorist threats and the investigation of terrorist activity, within the general objective of preventing the occurrence of terrorist activity. These tools are outlined by the procedural steps and safeguards set out in detail in Sections 83.28, 83.29 and 83.3. The fact that these provisions were not used by the Provincial Police Service (Royal Canadian Mounted Police), municipal police agencies, or the Public Prosecution Service of Nova Scotia illustrates that these measures are not being abused and that these agencies are proceeding cautiously in considering the use of these powers.

Attorney General of Nova Scotia's Annual Report on the Use of Electronic Surveillance for the Year 2006

SECTION I	INTRODUCTION
SECTION II	OVERVIEW OF PART VI OF THE CRIMINAL CODE
SECTION III	STATISTICS

SECTION I - INTRODUCTION

The Attorney General of Nova Scotia is required under section 195 of the Criminal Code to prepare and publish an annual report on judicially authorized interceptions of private communications in connection with authorizations requested by agents designated by the Attorney General as well as interceptions granted for offences under provincial jurisdiction.

Section II of the report provides an overview of the key procedural requirements of Part VI of the Criminal Code.

Section III presents data provided by agents of the Attorney General of Nova Scotia who are designated pursuant to paragraph 185(1)(a) of the Criminal Code and information contained in the operational reports of police forces that requested that applications be made for authorized interception.

SECTION II – OVERVIEW OF PART VI OF THE CRIMINAL CODE

The provisions of what is now Part VI of the Criminal Code came into force on July 1, 1974. The legislation protects the privacy of Canadians by making it an offence to intercept private communications except as provided for by law, while providing the police with the means to obtain judicial authorizations to conduct electronic surveillance to assist in criminal investigations.

The following are the key features of the requirements related to the application for and the granting of an authorization under section 185 and a warrant under section 487.01:

A police investigator must swear an affidavit deposing to the facts relied upon to justify the belief that an authorization or warrant should be given, and must provide reasonable and probable grounds to believe that electronic surveillance of certain persons may assist the investigation of the offence.

An agent designated by the Attorney General of Nova Scotia to make an application for an authorization to intercept private communications is responsible for ensuring that all matters relating to the application comply with the law. In addition, the agent must ensure that the offence, although provided for in law, is of a serious enough nature to warrant the application and that sufficient evidence does not already exist to prove the offence.

The judge, when considering the application, must be satisfied that granting the authorization would be in the best interests of the administration of justice and that other investigative procedures have been tried and failed, other investigative procedures are unlikely to succeed or the urgency of the matter is such that it would be impractical to carry out the investigation of the offence using only other investigative procedures. The last two requirements do not apply to applications relating to criminal organization offences or, more recently, terrorism offences. The judge may also impose such terms and conditions regarding the implementation of the authorization as the judge considers appropriate.

The following are the key features of the procedural regime:

Only the Attorney General of Nova Scotia, or persons specially designated by the Attorney General of Nova Scotia, may make an application for an authorization. In practice, applications for authorizations are made by lawyers employed by or under contract with the Public Prosecution Service of Nova Scotia designated by the Attorney General of Nova Scotia, and peace officers who are specially designated by the Attorney General of Nova Scotia for the purpose of applying for emergency authorizations under section 188 of the Criminal Code.

An agent designated by the Attorney General of Nova Scotia can, on the basis of an affidavit sworn by a peace officer or public officer, apply for an audio or video surveillance authorization. A judge of a superior court of criminal jurisdiction or as defined in section 552 of the Criminal Code may grant an authorization if, among other things, the judge is satisfied that it conforms with the criteria specified in the Criminal Code.

Peace officers specially designated by the Attorney General of Nova Scotia may also apply directly to a judge for an audio or video authorization, if the urgency of the situation requires surveillance before a non-emergency audio or video authorization could be obtained with reasonable diligence. This emergency video or audio authorization may be granted for a period not exceeding thirty-six hours.

Applications may also be made for a renewal of an authorization. A judge may grant such an application if he or she is satisfied that the same circumstances which applied to the original application for the authorization still apply. Renewals, therefore, serve to extend the period during which audio or video surveillance may lawfully be undertaken.

In granting an application for an authorization, a judge may impose such terms and conditions as the judge considers advisable in the public interest. The terms or conditions a judge may impose consist of restrictions or limitations on who, how, when, where or what interceptions may be made. Examples include such requirements as live monitoring, live monitoring accompanied by visual surveillance, or restrictions based on solicitor-client privilege or other confidential relationships.
