Dear Farmers, Producers, Food Service Buyers, Chefs & Retailers,

Greetings! This is our 16th edition of Food For Thought - A Buyer's Guide to Local and Seasonal Nova Scotia Agri-Food Products.

This directory includes growers, producers, and local food companies who responded to our survey.

This directory will be updated on our web page and located online at:

<http://www.gov.ns.ca/agri/marketing/contact/agriculture/foodft/index.shtml>

We encourage you to use this directory in buying locally produced products first.

Warm regards,

Marketing Services Division of the Nova Scotia Department of Agriculture in consultation with Nova Scotia's agri-food industry.
