Bartaux Farms is a family-owned and operated mixed farming business...orchard, garden, berries and beef make up this beautiful Annapolis Valley farm. Each season, the Barteauxs open their road-side fruit market starting with delicious strawberries and continuing through the summer and into the fall with various berries, plums, pears, garden vegetables and, of course, their well known apples and peaches. New to Bartaux Farms this year is the Bartaux Farms Raspberry U-Pick. Plump, juicy raspberries will be available for the public to pick at their leisure.

Bear River Vineyards & Winery

133 Chute Road, Bear River NS B0S 1B0

Telephone: 902-467-4156

Web site: www.wine.travel

Bear River is Nova Scotia's only 100% "Estate Grown and Bottled" winery. A unique solar powered, gravity feed winery in a 5 story, 1883 Bank Barn. Hand-fitted slate floors and granite walls are part of the winery with a tasting experience of medal winning wines. Hours are noon til 5:00pm everyday. First planted in 1611 by Lois Hebert, Canadas first farmer, government experimental plantings in 1963 confirmed Bear River as the best vineyard climate. These plantings were followed by the present Bear River commercial vineyard planting in 1989. A truly historic vineyard. Winery and vineyard tours are conducted every day from May til October. Wine tours and tasting are free for groups up to six. For larger groups just give us a few days notice. "Best Wine Tour Ever" (Tauck Tours executive).

French colonists planted the first vine in this area in the early 1600's. In 1994, Petite Riviere Vineyards revived the tradition. Wines from Canada's oldest wine growing region are now available at the winery, and at select restaurants in the area. We use only grapes from the LaHave River Valley. Our poor rocky soil and long, mild growing season provide an ideal terroir for quality wines. The wines bear the name of this unique region, "Côtes de LaHave". Winery is available for rental for weddings, parties, meetings.

Winery Hours: July - September: Thursday to Sunday 12:00 to 5:00pm

October - December: Saturday & Sunday 12:00 to 5:00pm
