

APPLICATIONS INVITED

Minister's List of Arbitrators Nova Scotia Environment and Labour

Upon the request of the union or employer, the Minister may appoint an Arbitrator to resolve a grievance dispute when the parties are unable to agree on an Arbitrator to hear the case. The Minister of Environment and Labour is seeking Arbitrators for the Minister's List of Arbitrators under Parts I and II of the Trade Union Act including expedited arbitration.

Applicants are invited to review further information including the Criteria for Appointment to the Minister's List of Arbitrators located at the department's website located at: www.gov.ns.ca/enla/unionworkplaces/

The Arbitration Advisory Committee is mandated to advise the Minister with respect to the selection of arbitrators and matters relating to arbitration. This Committee will be reviewing these applications and advising the Minister on the selection of candidates.

Interested applicants are asked to submit a cover letter and resume detailing their qualifications by February 29, 2008 to:
