

NOTICE

Proposed Aquaculture Site PUBLIC MEETING

Date: Thursday, April 17, 2008

Time: 6:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Place: Shelburne Fire Hall - Community Centre (Auditorium)
63 King Street, Shelburne, Nova Scotia

The Nova Scotia Department of Fisheries and Aquaculture invites you to attend an open public meeting on an application submitted by Kelly Cove Salmon Limited to operate a salmon farm near McNutts Island at the mouth of Shelburne Harbour, Shelburne County.

The purpose of this meeting is to provide information and allow individuals to make comments about the proposal.

The input gathered will be used by the Department of Fisheries and Aquaculture to aid in their review of the application.

Agenda

6:30 pm - 7:00 pm Introduction and Information

7:00 pm - 9:00 pm Group Discussions

9:00 pm - 9:30 pm Closing Comments

The proposed site (#1345), consisting of 28.00 hectares, is composed of: 400m x 700m centred around 43 39.266' Latitude and -65 17.015' Longitude.

A sketch of the site and further details can be obtained from:

Aquaculture Licensing and Leasing Supervisor
Nova Scotia Department of Fisheries and Aquaculture
PO Box 2223, Halifax, Nova Scotia B3J 3C4
Telephone: (902) 424-0356
Fax: (902) 424-1766
Email: vezinam@gov.ns.ca

Persons wishing to make written submissions can send them to the above-noted address before April 30, 2008.

NOTE: Should this meeting to be cancelled for any reason, it will take place at the same location and time on Friday, April 18, 2008.

Ronald M. Chisholm
Minister
Department of Fisheries and Aquaculture

NOVA SCOTIA
Fisheries and Aquaculture