

Your community needs you!

Are you interested in the future of your community?

Ever thought of running for Council or volunteering with your municipality? Come and learn how to get involved with your local government.

Dalhousie University and the Province of Nova Scotia will be conducting information workshops across the province in order to educate citizens about the variety of roles they can play in their community.

Your municipality needs:

- board and committee members
- volunteer firefighters
- candidates for the 2008 municipal election
