

Two New Departments To Serve Nova Scotians

Starting today, there will be two new provincial government departments dedicated to building safer, healthier communities, positive working conditions and a skilled, competitive workforce in Nova Scotia.

Nova Scotians can turn to Labour and Workforce Development for:

- Adult learning & apprenticeship training
- Public safety & safe workplaces
- Resolution of employment issues
- Workplace education programs
- Nova Scotia labour market information
- Alcohol and gaming regulation
- Film classification
- Pension regulation

PO Box 697
5151 Terminal Road
Halifax, NS B3J 2T8

Phone: 902-424-5301
Fax: 902-424-0503
www.gov.ns.ca/lwd

Nova Scotians can turn to Environment for information and services related to:

- Climate change
- Solid waste reduction and recycling
- Protected areas
- Environmental protection: air, land and water
- Environmental Assessments
- Trade and innovation
- Pollution prevention
- Youth Corps

PO Box 442
5151 Terminal Road
Halifax, NS B3J 2P8

Phone: 902-424-3600
Fax: 902-424-0503
www.gov.ns.ca/nse

Direct phone numbers will remain the same for all divisions and regional offices.