

Celebrating National Forest Week 2008

Canada's Forests: Biodiversity in a Changing World

The Department of Natural Resources offers programs to help Nova Scotians learn more about the forest resources of our province.

For Landowners:

Check out our latest home study module Non-Timber Forest Products: Growing Opportunities.
Get your copy by calling 1-866-226-7577.

For Teachers:

Our Natural Resources Education Centre, Middle Musquodoboit, offers curriculum-based programs designed to challenge young minds. Explore our newest program Weather, Nature and Climate Change.

Book an outdoor adventure for your class by calling 902-384-3420 or at www.gov.ns.ca/natr/extension/centre/default.html

Limited quantities of National Forest Week classroom kits are available from any DNR office or order online from the Canadian Forestry Association at:
