

WORKERS'
COMPENSATION
BOARD OF NOVA SCOTIA

Board of Directors

The Workers' Compensation Board is a vibrant, stakeholder-driven Board of Directors that sets the vision, accountability and policy direction for the WCB, and works in partnership with other agencies to develop coordinated strategies for the Workplace Safety and Insurance System.

The Province of Nova Scotia is seeking two (2) employer and three (3) employee stakeholder representatives to sit as members of the Board of Directors for the Workers' Compensation Board. The next anticipated vacancies occur in July, 2009. The Workers Compensation Board exercises stewardship over yearly revenues in excess of $254 Million and assets of over $1.1 Billion. The Board operates independently from government and is accountable to employer and employee stakeholders.

Employer and employee stakeholder associations that are interested in nominating a member to serve on the Board of Directors should forward, in nomination:

- The individual's resume, specifying the nominee's relevant experience in such fields as workers' compensation, governance and accountability, safety and injury prevention or other related fields.
- A letter of nomination from the association and any other supporting documentation. Individual applications will not be considered.

As the Province is committed to affirmative action in making appointments, stakeholder associations are asked to provide any information related candidates who may be members of aboriginal communities, women, persons with disabilities and members of racially visible groups. Compensation for this position is currently $300 per day with an additional stipend of $2,000 per year when chairing a subcommittee of the Board.
