Personal Health Information Legislation for Nova Scotia

Discussion Paper

The Department of Health has developed a Discussion Paper on Personal Health Information Legislation for Nova Scotia.

The proposed legislation will set out rules for collection, use, disclosure and retention of personal health information.

The public and stakeholder consultation ends on November 1, 2008.

The public and other stakeholders are encouraged to review the Discussion Paper and provide feedback to the Department of Health. The paper is available at the legislation project website at www.gov.ns.ca/health/phia

Hard copies of the document are available by contacting the Legislation Project Office at phia@gov.ns.ca or by calling the Department of Health at 424-7058 or toll-free (Nova Scotia only) at 1-800-387-6665.
