

You Can Make a Difference.

By serving on one of Nova Scotia's adjudicative agencies, boards and commissions you can play a vital role in the administration of government.

Adjudicative agencies, boards, and commissions serve various roles and diverse interests. Adjudicative boards have quasi-judicial functions.

For further information about the adjudicative process, board position profiles, current opportunities and how to apply, visit our website at www.gov.ns.ca/exec\_council/abc or contact the Executive Council Office at 902-424-4877 or toll free 1-866-206-6844.

The Government of Nova Scotia has an Employment Equity Policy and we welcome applications from Aboriginal People, African Nova Scotians and other Racially Visible People, Persons with Disabilities and Women. If you are a member of one of the equity groups you are encouraged to self-identify, on either your application, covering letter or your resume.
