Executive Director, Correctional Services Justice, Halifax

Competition #: 019172

Correctional Services contributes to a safe and secure society through custody-based and community corrections and programs. The Executive Director provides vision, leadership, strategic direction and oversight of the division; provides advice to the Deputy Minister and Minister on correctional services and criminal justice issues and represents the department and province at a variety of levels.

A degree in a relevant discipline and extensive management/operations leadership experience in the public sector is required. Solid knowledge of the criminal justice system, correctional programs and current and emerging issues facing the Canadian justice system is a must. The successful candidate must demonstrate solid leadership competencies including the ability to analyze and problem solve and cope with stress in potentially volatile situations (disturbances, riots, escapes, suicides). See full details online.

Salary Range: $85,201 - $110,762

Closing Date: June 2, 2009
