

Congratulations Graduates!

The Nova Scotia School for Adult Learning (NSSAL) is celebrating its eighth year of providing tuition-free educational opportunities for adults.

Carrie is one of over 400 Nova Scotians who graduated this year with the High School Graduation Diploma for Adults. Congratulations Carrie and all NSSAL graduates.

The Department of Labour and Workforce Development would like to thank all of their partners: Department of Education, Department of Community Services, Service Canada, community learning organizations, regional school boards, Nova Scotia Community College and Université Sainte-Anne.

“I had all of these dreams and goals, but I just didn’t know how to make them real... I needed my high school diploma. The Adult Learning Program gave me the skills and confidence I need to grab a hold of the many opportunities that exist out there for me.”

NSSAL supports 140 programs across the province.
