

Short Version:

Ross Landry was born and raised in Trenton. He attended the Atlantic Police Academy, where he began a 35-plus-year career in policing, mostly with the RCMP.

Ross has degrees in criminology, education, and law.

He was elected MLA for Pictou Center in 2009, and was appointed Attorney General and Minister of Justice that same year.

Ross is active in his community and has been a member of several boards and committees, including the Pictou County United Way.

Ross enjoys a very active lifestyle and is an avid cyclist.

Ross and his wife Dianne have three adult children and one granddaughter.