ATTORNEY GENERAL OF NOVA SCOTIA - ANNUAL REPORT ON THE LAW ENFORCEMENT JUSTIFICATION PROVISIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

Sections 25.1-25.4 of the Criminal Code provide a limited justification for otherwise illegal acts and omissions committed by law enforcement officers (and those acting under their direction) while investigating an offence under federal law, enforcing a federal law, or investigating criminal activity.

The law enforcement justification provisions also establish a system of accountability under which the competent authority, the Attorney General of Nova Scotia, is requiredⁱ to make public an annual report on the use of specific portions of the law enforcement justification provisions by members of the municipal police agencies designated by the Attorney General of Nova Scotia.

In particular, the Attorney General must report:

- how many times a senior official made temporary designations under the provisions;ⁱⁱ
- how many times a senior official authorized a public officer to commit an act or omission that would otherwise constitute an offence, and that is likely to result in loss of or serious damage to property, or directed an agent to commit an act or omission that would otherwise constitute an offence;ⁱⁱⁱ
- how many times a public officer proceeded without such an authorization from a senior official, due to exigent circumstances;^{iv}
- the nature of the conduct being investigated in these instances;^v and
- the types of justified acts or omissions, which would otherwise constitute offences committed in these instances.^{vi}

This report addresses use of specific portions of the law enforcement justification provisions from January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015 for municipal police members designated by the Attorney General of Nova Scotia. The Solicitor General of Canada is responsible for and has reported on the same provisions for all members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

II. OVERVIEW OF THE LAW ENFORCEMENT JUSTIFICATION REGIME

In April 1999, the Supreme Court of Canada’s judgment in R. v. Campbell and Shirose declared that under the common law, police were not immune from criminal liability for criminal acts they committed during an investigation. The Court also stated that, “if some form of public interest immunity is to be extended to the police.....it should be left to Parliament to delineate the nature and scope of the immunity and the circumstances in which it is available.”^{vii}

On December 18, 2001, Bill C-24, An Act to Amend the Criminal Code (Organized Crime and Law Enforcement), received Royal Assent. While most portions of Bill C-24 came into force on January 7, 2002, the law enforcement justification provisions, set out in sections 25.1-25.4 of the Criminal Code, were only proclaimed on February 1, 2002, to allow time for the training and preparation of law enforcement personnel.

The law enforcement justification provisions respond to the judgment in Campbell and Shirose by providing a limited justification for otherwise illegal acts and omissions committed by law enforcement officers (and others acting under their direction) while investigating an offence under federal law, enforcing a federal law, or investigating criminal activity. They also establish a system of accountability.

An essential element of the law enforcement justification provisions is that they apply to designated public officers only.^{viii} In the case of RCMP members, the Solicitor General of Canada is the competent authority responsible for making designations.^{ix} In the case of Municipal Police Officers in Nova Scotia, the Attorney General of Nova Scotia is the competent authority responsible for making designations. The Attorney General of Nova Scotia did not designate any public officers (in Nova Scotia municipal police officers potentially from twelve different municipal police forces) during this reporting period, namely January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015.

The law enforcement justification provisions provide a designated public officer with a defence in law to the extent that his or her conduct is reasonable and proportional under the circumstances. Certain types of conduct, such as intentionally causing bodily harm, violating the sexual integrity of a person and willfully attempting to obstruct, pervert or defeat the course of justice, are excluded from the justification provisions.^x

The Attorney General is responsible for designating a senior official, who then advises the Attorney General on public officer designations.^{xi} Under ordinary circumstances, only the Attorney General may issue public officer designations to municipal police members; however, in exigent circumstances, the senior official may make temporary public officer designations. The senior official may designate a public officer for a period of 48 hours or less if the senior official believes that due to exigent circumstances, it is not feasible for the Attorney General to designate a public officer and under the circumstances, the public officer would be justified in committing an act or omission that would otherwise constitute an offence.^{xii}

A public officer must receive a written authorization from the senior official for acts or omissions that would otherwise constitute an offence and that would likely result in loss of, or serious damage to, property, or for directing another person to commit an act or omission that would otherwise constitute an offence.^{xiii}

A public officer may only proceed without a written authorization from a senior official for acts or omissions that would otherwise constitute an offence and that would likely result in loss of or serious damage to property, or for directing another person to commit an act or omission that would otherwise constitute an offence, under very limited circumstances. He or she must believe, on reasonable grounds, that the grounds for obtaining an authorization exist, but it is not feasible under the circumstances to obtain the authorization, and that the act or omission is necessary to:

- preserve the life or safety of a person;
- avoid compromising the identity of a public officer acting in an undercover capacity, a confidential informant, or a person acting covertly under the direction and control of a public officer; or
- prevent the imminent loss or destruction of evidence of an indictable offence.^{xiv}

III. STATISTICS

A. Temporary Designations

Paragraphs 25.3(1)(a), (d) and (e) of the Criminal Code require the following information to be made public:

- The number of temporary public officer designations made by the senior official.
- The nature of the conduct being investigated in these cases.
- The nature of the justified acts or omissions, which would otherwise constitute offences, that were committed by the designated public officer.

From January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015, no temporary designations were made by senior officials.

B. Authorizations for Specific Acts and Omissions

Paragraphs 25.3(1)(b), (d) and (e) of the Criminal Code require the following information to be made public:

- The number of cases in which the senior official:
 - authorized a public officer to commit a justified act or omission that would otherwise constitute an offence and that would likely result in loss of or serious damage to property, or
 - authorized a public officer to direct another person to commit a justified act or omission that would otherwise constitute an offence.^{xv}
- The nature of the conduct being investigated in these cases.

- The nature of the justified acts or omissions, which would otherwise constitute offences, that were committed.

From January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015, no authorizations were granted for directing another person to commit a justified act or omission that would otherwise constitute an offence.

From January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015, no authorizations were granted to public officers to commit justified acts or omissions that would otherwise constitute offences and that would likely result in loss of or serious damage to property.

C. Instances of Public Officers Proceeding Without Senior Official Authorization

Paragraphs 25.3(1)(c), (d) and (e) of the Criminal Code require the following information to be made public:

- The number of times that public officers proceeded without the senior official's authorization, based on reasonable grounds to believe that the grounds for obtaining an authorization existed and that the justified act or omission that would otherwise constitute an offence was necessary due to exigent circumstances.^{xvi}
- The nature of the conduct being investigated when public officers proceeded in this manner.
- The nature of the justified acts or omissions, which would otherwise constitute offences that were committed when the public officers proceeded in this manner.

From January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015, no public officers proceeded without the senior official's written authorization in these circumstances.

IV. CONCLUSION

Between January 1, 2015 and December 31, 2015, no powers under the law enforcement justification provisions have been exercised by municipal police in Nova Scotia.

Nova Scotia's focus regarding the law enforcement justification provisions has been in keeping with the experience of the Solicitor General of Canada and the RCMP. We will carefully oversee the exercise of any powers under sections 25.1 to 25.4 of the Criminal Code by municipal police in Nova Scotia.

Signed this 19th day of April 2016.
