

ELECTRICAL BULLETIN

2007-04

From: David MacLeod, C.E.I., P.Eng.
Provincial Chief Electrical Inspector

Date: July 30, 2007

Subject: New Accredited Electrical Certification Organization / Body

Per the Nova Scotia Electrical Code Regulations all electrical products sold or used in Nova Scotia shall be certified, as approved equipment, by a Certification Organization accredited by the Standards Council of Canada and be acceptable to the Provincial Chief Electrical Inspector.

Please be advised that effective immediately Nemko Canada Inc. will be accepted as an electrical certification organization in Nova Scotia within the scope of their accreditation for electrical items.

In order for the product to be acceptable in Nova Scotia the certification label must have a small “c” at the eight o’clock position which indicates compliance to the applicable Canadian standard.

The contact for Nemko Canada Inc. is:

Ken Dowling P.Eng, Senior Technical Assessor
303 River Road
Ottawa, Ontario
Canada
