
YOUTH WORKING IN RESTAURANTS

Amendments to Section 68(2) of the Labour Standards Code make it possible for young people of 14 and 15 to work in restaurants, providing:

- They are not operating cooking equipment,
 - Safety training is provided on all equipment, and
 - Adequate supervision is provided.

Q: WHAT IS COOKING EQUIPMENT?

A: Cooking equipment is equipment used to prepare food by heating: e.g., stoves, deep fryers, grills, ovens, etc.

Q: HOW CAN I FIND OUT MORE ABOUT SAFETY AND SAFETY TRAINING?

The Workers Compensation Board of Nova Scotia (WCB) has a number of resources that may be of assistance to employers and young workers.

- WCB's young worker website has a broad range of information in a "storefront" format that provides information to young workers and would be of interest to those employing young workers:
<http://www.somanyways.ca/>
- WCB also has a brochure on young worker safety entitled Intro to Workplace Injury Prevention For Workers Under 25. This brochure is on the young worker website, in the "One Stop Shopping" section. It is also available in hard copy from the WCB office.
- WCB's Prevention website <http://www.wcb.ns.ca/new/prevention.php> has information on creating safety programs.
- WCB's Preventing Workplace Injuries family of resources can be accessed at <http://www.wcb.ns.ca/new/prevention.php?id=278>. These materials are also available in hard copy from the Information Officer.
- For more information on safety awareness and resources, contact WCB's Information Officer at 491-8950.
