

Registered Representative Permit Application Information Sheet

The NSLC has an agreement with Service Nova Scotia and Municipal Relations to administer the Registered Representative Permit using the processes and technology of the Nova Scotia Business Registry. The NSLC will continue to review and approve new applications and annual renewals.

This application must be completed by an employee, who requires a new NSLC Registered Representative Permit as specified in the Nova Scotia Liquor Control Act. To successfully process your application and issue a Permit, the applicant must include:

- A completed application – Please note this application may be processed Online at www.nsbr.ca
- A payment of $20 or your credit card information in the application
- A letter from your employer, on company letterhead, confirming your employment and including the employer's CRA Business Number

Complete all areas of the following sections:

- The Personal Applicant Profile Information
- Payment Type Information
- Other Registered Representative Permit Information
- Declaration of Applicant, which includes additional applicant information and Employer's operating name and contact information

Only complete the Business Applicant Profile Information section if you own your own company and require this Permit due to your duties as an owner of the company. This will be used for identification purposes at SNSMR only. It will not be used as an application for any other NSLC Permits.

If you have any questions about the attached form, please contact SNSMR at (902) 424-5200 or 1-800-670-4357.

Information on this form is collected under the authority of the Nova Scotia Liquor Control Act as designated in the Business Electronic Filing Act and may be subject to disclosure under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. It will be used by the Nova Scotia Liquor Corporation for administration under the Act; for development of policies and programs; and distribution of material to related businesses.
